I. Personal Traits: A "Creator" Driven by Passion and Action

I am a proactive soon-to-be graduate with an outgoing personality, strong social skills, and a deep passion for "creation." Throughout my internships and project development, I discovered that my greatest sense of achievement comes not just from completing a task, but from the process of transforming an idea into a tangible application. I place immense value on user feedback and use it as a driving force to perform immediate and thorough optimizations. I firmly believe that technology should serve human needs; this "human-centric" spirit is the core motivation behind my work in development.

II. Educational Background: AIoT Expertise and Development Prowess

During my studies in the IoT program within the Department of Smart Commerce at National Kaohsiung University of Science and Technology, I focused on the practical application of programming and cultivated cross-disciplinary skills in hardware and software integration.

[Award-Winning Proxy Shopping App Development]

- Result: Successfully digitized manual processes, reduced information loss, and significantly improved cross-platform collaboration efficiency.

Data Analysis and Visualized Decision-Making

- Situation & Task: Organized 2025 revenue data to provide management with precise references for strategic decisions.

- Action: Used Power BI to aggregate data and analyze sales performance across the Machinery, Tooling, and Fastener segments. I calculated key metrics including profit margins and Year-over-Year (YoY) growth.
- Result: Produced a visualized 2025 Annual Report featuring key insights, such as the stagnation of the Polish market and the substantial growth momentum in India. This report was successfully utilized during the ISO 9001 audit process.

International Market Development and Marketing

- Action: Conducted international market research , drafted business development letters, and managed the LinkedIn community. I personally handled product photography and video editing to enhance brand visibility.

IV. AI Implementation: Innovative Tools for Organizational Efficiency

I continuously refine my AI application skills through AI Agent courses, implementing the latest technologies in the workplace:

- [AI Invoice Registration System]: Utilized AI recognition technology to automatically convert paper invoices into JSON format for registration, significantly enhancing financial administration efficiency.
 - [AI + OCR Drawing Translation System]: Assisted internal staff in scanning and translating product drawings in real-time, while automatically performing unit conversions to overcome obstacles in international technical communication.

V. Future Outlook and Conclusion: A Continuous Journey of Creation

In summary, I am a developer who loves to create and dares to practice. From winning the top prize for a university app project to building inventory and data analysis systems for a corporation during my internship, I have always been committed to transforming complex technology into simple, effective tools.

Looking ahead, I look forward to bringing my passion for "creation" to your company's development. With my outgoing nature, I can communicate effectively with teams and users. Simultaneously, with solid AI and data implementation skills, I am prepared to assist your enterprise in its digital transformation. I will continue to maintain my passion for creation to provide the organization with innovative and human-centric technical solutions.
